

Mrs. Gordon's K5 Newsletter January 2019

Warm winter wishes to you! I hope your Christmas holidays were everything you were hoping for. Here is what we are doing in January 2019.

Science: As we read about penguins and polar bears we will explore Antarctica as a habitat.

Social Studies: Our study of penguins and arctic animals will demonstrate that people can make the environment better by their actions.

Math: We will explore the process of addition and subtraction.

Religion: Reading about different areas in the world will help us to see all parts of the world as God's creation to value and care for.

Reading: The new words for this month are: play, they, can, not, of, be, come, did, for, go. New letters for this month are Kk, Ff, and Oo.
