Continue to practice tracing your name!

We are still working on less tattling and will continue to work on following directions, listening, and sharing. If you will continue to work on these skills at home, too, it will help your child grow and become a polite, social person. I have seen many improvements with the children, so please continue this at home as well.

Happy St. Patrick's Day!!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Landolt & Miss Mindy
